LUDHIANA, JUNE 29

IVANNA Institute of Fashion Technology, a PTU learning centre for fashion studies has signed a memorandum of understanding with the Government Institute of Textile Chemistry and Knitting technology. The MoU was signed by GITCKT principal Dr N S Bhullar and Ivanna IFT director Manmeet Sodhia.

In the MoU, both parties agreed to exchange information and data on training and skill requirements of students, and their relationship to emerging needs of textile, knitting and garment industry. Both institutes will work to make education more relevant to the changing technological needs.

To improve the quality of training, there would also be an exchange of faculty members between the two institutes. Ivanna

IFT and GITCKT will jointly organise workshops and seminars in the field of technical education and industrial training to promote innovation and optimisation of resources. Guest lectures will also be arranged between the two institutes.

Arrangements will be made for visits of staff members and students to industrial units. "This tie up with GITCKT will surely help us to achieve our mission," said Manmeet Sodhia.
